Make sure your telephone number is correct and press " Send SMS" Message

Signing up on the account

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://us-mg5.mail.yahoo.com/neo/launch?.rand=4qrulh2iuohm0>. The page header includes navigation links for Home, Mail, News, Sports, Finance, Weather, Games, Groups, Answers, Screen, Flickr, Mobile, and More. The Yahoo! Mail logo is visible, along with search buttons for Mail and Web. A left sidebar lists folders: Compose, Inbox, Drafts, Sent, Spam, Trash, Folders, and Recent. The main content area features a white overlay with the heading "Hi, NicestProject Sofar!" and the text "Personalize your inbox with a theme." Below this is a grid of eight theme preview images. At the bottom of the overlay, there is a list of features under the heading "Also new today:" and two buttons: "Keep Theme" and "Not Now".

Hi, NicestProject Sofar!
Personalize your inbox with a theme.

Also new today:

- View messages with the same subject grouped together as conversations.
- Preview documents before downloading and opening the file.
- Get premium features like disposable addresses and mail forwarding for free.
